This ranch is primarily wooded mesquite pasture with scattered cleared areas with heavy grass meadows. The topography is level to rolling with approximately 50' of elevation change. There are several wooded draws scattered throughout the ranch that serve as tributaries to the stock ponds. The stock ponds are strategically placed on the ranch for easy watering of livestock. The ranch is cross fenced into a north and south pasture with the north being 315 acres and 143 acres in the south pasture. There is a 35+/- acre cleared field in the south pasture that could easily be converted to farmland. Both the perimeter and cross fences are 5 strand barbed wire in good condition. perfect for several lengthy hunts. The Arrowhead Ranch is an all-around great recreational hunting and fishing property as well as an ideal ready to go livestock setup.

In addition to the hunting, income can be derived from running your own cattle, or leasing the grass to a tenant. It's is an ideal ranch to start, or expand a cow/calf operation. The stocking rate for the area is approximately 1 animal unit per 15 acres, giving this ranch a carrying capacity of about 30 momma cows.

Currently the ranch is not leased for hunting, or grazing.

In addition the hunting and agricultural uses, this ranch also caters to a fisherman. The northernmost tank was recently stocked with fish. Lake Arrowhead which is less than 2 miles west of this ranch is one of the best fishing lakes around. A boat could be launched in less than 15 minutes from the Arrowhead Ranch.

Improvements consist of metal livestock working pens strategically placed at the central portion of the ranch along the cross fence that allows easy handling of livestock.

The Arrowhead Ranch is a rare offering as very few ranches of this size ever become available to be purchased in this area of Clay County. Given the recreational attributes coupled with the agricultural uses, this is a must see for any type of buyer.
