Purpose of Statement: This statement is a disclosure of the condition of the property in compliance with the Seller Disclosure Act. This statement is a disclosure of the condition and information concerning the property, known by the Seller. Unless otherwise advised, the Seller does not possess any expertise in construction, architecture, engineering or any other specific area related to the construction or condition of the improvements on the property or the land. Also, unless otherwise advised, the Seller has not conducted any inspection of generally inaccessible areas such as the foundation or roof. This statement is not a warranty of any kind by the Seller or by any Agent representing the Seller in this transaction and is not a substitute for any inspections or warranties the Buyer may wish to obtain.

Seller's Disclosure: The Seller discloses the following information with the knowledge that even though this is not a warranty, the Seller specifically makes the following representations based on the Seller's knowledge at the signing of this document. Upon receiving this statement from the Seller, the Seller's Agent is required to provide a copy to the Buyer or the Agent of the Buyer. The Seller authorizes its Agent(s) to provide a copy of this statement to any prospective Buyer in connection with any actual or anticipated sale of property. The following are representations made solely by the Seller and are not the representations of the Seller's Agent(s), if any. This information is a disclosure only and is not intended to be part of any contract between Buyer and Seller.

GREATER LANSING ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®

RESPONSIBILITIES OF SELLERS UNDER RESIDENTIAL LEAD-BASED PAINT HAZARD REDUCTION ACT 42 U.S.C. 4852d

The disclosure requirements listed below are imposed on Sellers of residential housing prior to 1978.

Sellers must disclose the presence of any lead-based paint hazards actually known to Seller A Lead-Based Paint Sellers' Disclosure Form for providing such information is on the reverse of this form. This disclosure must be made prior to the Sellers' acceptance of the Purchasers' offer. An offer may not be accepted until after the disclosure requirements are satisfied; and the Purchasers have had an opportunity to review the disclosure language, and to amend their offer, if they wish

If the Sellers are aware of the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the property being sold, the disclosure must include any information available concerning the known lead-based paint and/or leadbased paint hazard, including the following:

- *The Sellers' basis for determining that lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazords exist;
- *The location of the lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards;
- The condition of the painted surfaces

If a lead-based paint hazard is not known to the Seller, the disclosure must include a statement disclaiming such knowledge

The Seller must provide a list of any records and reports available to the Sellers pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards, copies of which must be provided to the Purchasers (if no such records or reports exist, the disclosure statement should affirmatively so state.)

Sellers must provide to Purchasers the government mandated Lead Warning Statement contained on the reverse side of this form.

Sellers must provide Purchasers with a copy of the federal pamphlet entitled Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home. Ask your REALTOR® for a copy.

Sellers must permit a Purchaser a ten- (10-) day period (unless the parties mutually agree, in writing, upon a different period of time) to have the property tested for lead-based paint before the Purchasers become obligated under the Buy and Sell Contract

The undersigned hereby acknowledge that the REALT()R® named below has reviewed with us the Responsibilities of Sellers Under Residential Leud-Bused Paint Hazard Reduction Act.

Federal law requires Sellers and Agents to retain a copy of this form for at least three years from NOTICE: the completion date of the sale.
