The property is finely manicured, with a picturesque entrance through rows of oak trees. The home features an open floor plan and a surplus of custom touches such as hickory cabinets, french doors, and tasteful crown moulding. There is a game room with wet bar, wine cellar, and a private office with separate entrance. A sprawling back porch, looking out to Texas Hill Country, is perfect for relaxing. The property is very quiet and serene, with most of the cedar being cleared out to make way for the towering oak trees. AG exempt. Just 20 minutes to Georgetown, with easy access via I-35. Jarrell ISD.
