

Red Mountain Vineyard Estates

667+ Acres

Offered in 21 Parcels (From 20 to 100+ Acres)

to Be Sold at Public Auction
Saturday, November 16th at 2PM PST

An unprecedented opportunity to purchase raw land inside of the Red Mountain appellation.

Benton City, WA

The 4,040 acre Red Mountain appellation is the smallest appellation in Washington State and accounts for less than 2% of the planted vine in state, yet Red Mountain wines occupy 13% of the top 100 Washington State wines according to Seattle Metropolitan Magazine

The Kennewick Irrigation District (KID) has been the steward of these lands for decades and has commissioned all 667± acres to be sold at public auction. Additionally, the KID has established a Local Improvement District that will bring pressurized irrigation water to 1,785 acres of land within the AVA and specifically all of the parcels that are being offered at this auction.
