Lake Buchanan Ranch

Burnet, Texas

Location: The Ranch is located 11 miles west of Burnet, Texas on Ranch Road 690. The property is only a quarter mile from Lake Buchanan and 2 miles from Inks Lake.

Size: 546 acres

Price: $4,000 per acre

Jurisdiction: Burnet County

Water: The ranch features a 14 acre dammed lake in the center of the property and has two stock tanks (1.5 acre and .5 acre). Additionally, the ranch is bisected by over 1.25 miles of spring fed and wet weather creeks.

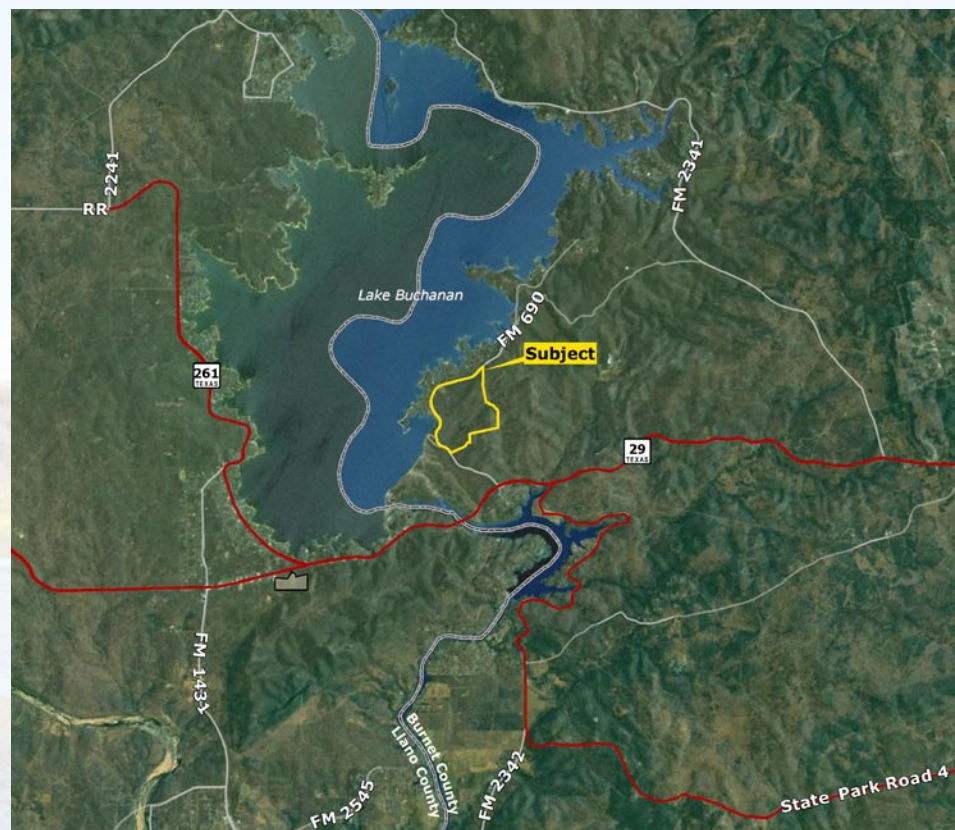

Terrain: The ranch has a variety of terrain from red sandy loam, where the owner has cultivated numerous wildlife food plots, to a rugged granite ridge rising 160 feet above the remainder of the ranch and offering dramatic views of Lake Buchanan and the surrounding countryside.

Improvements: The ranch is accessed by a network of over 5 miles of crushed granite roads leading to the lakeside cabana, equipment barn, cattle working pens, numerous hunting blind locations, and the overlook at the top of the ridge.

Wells: One water well powered by a windmill provides water and supplements the large lake in drought cycles.

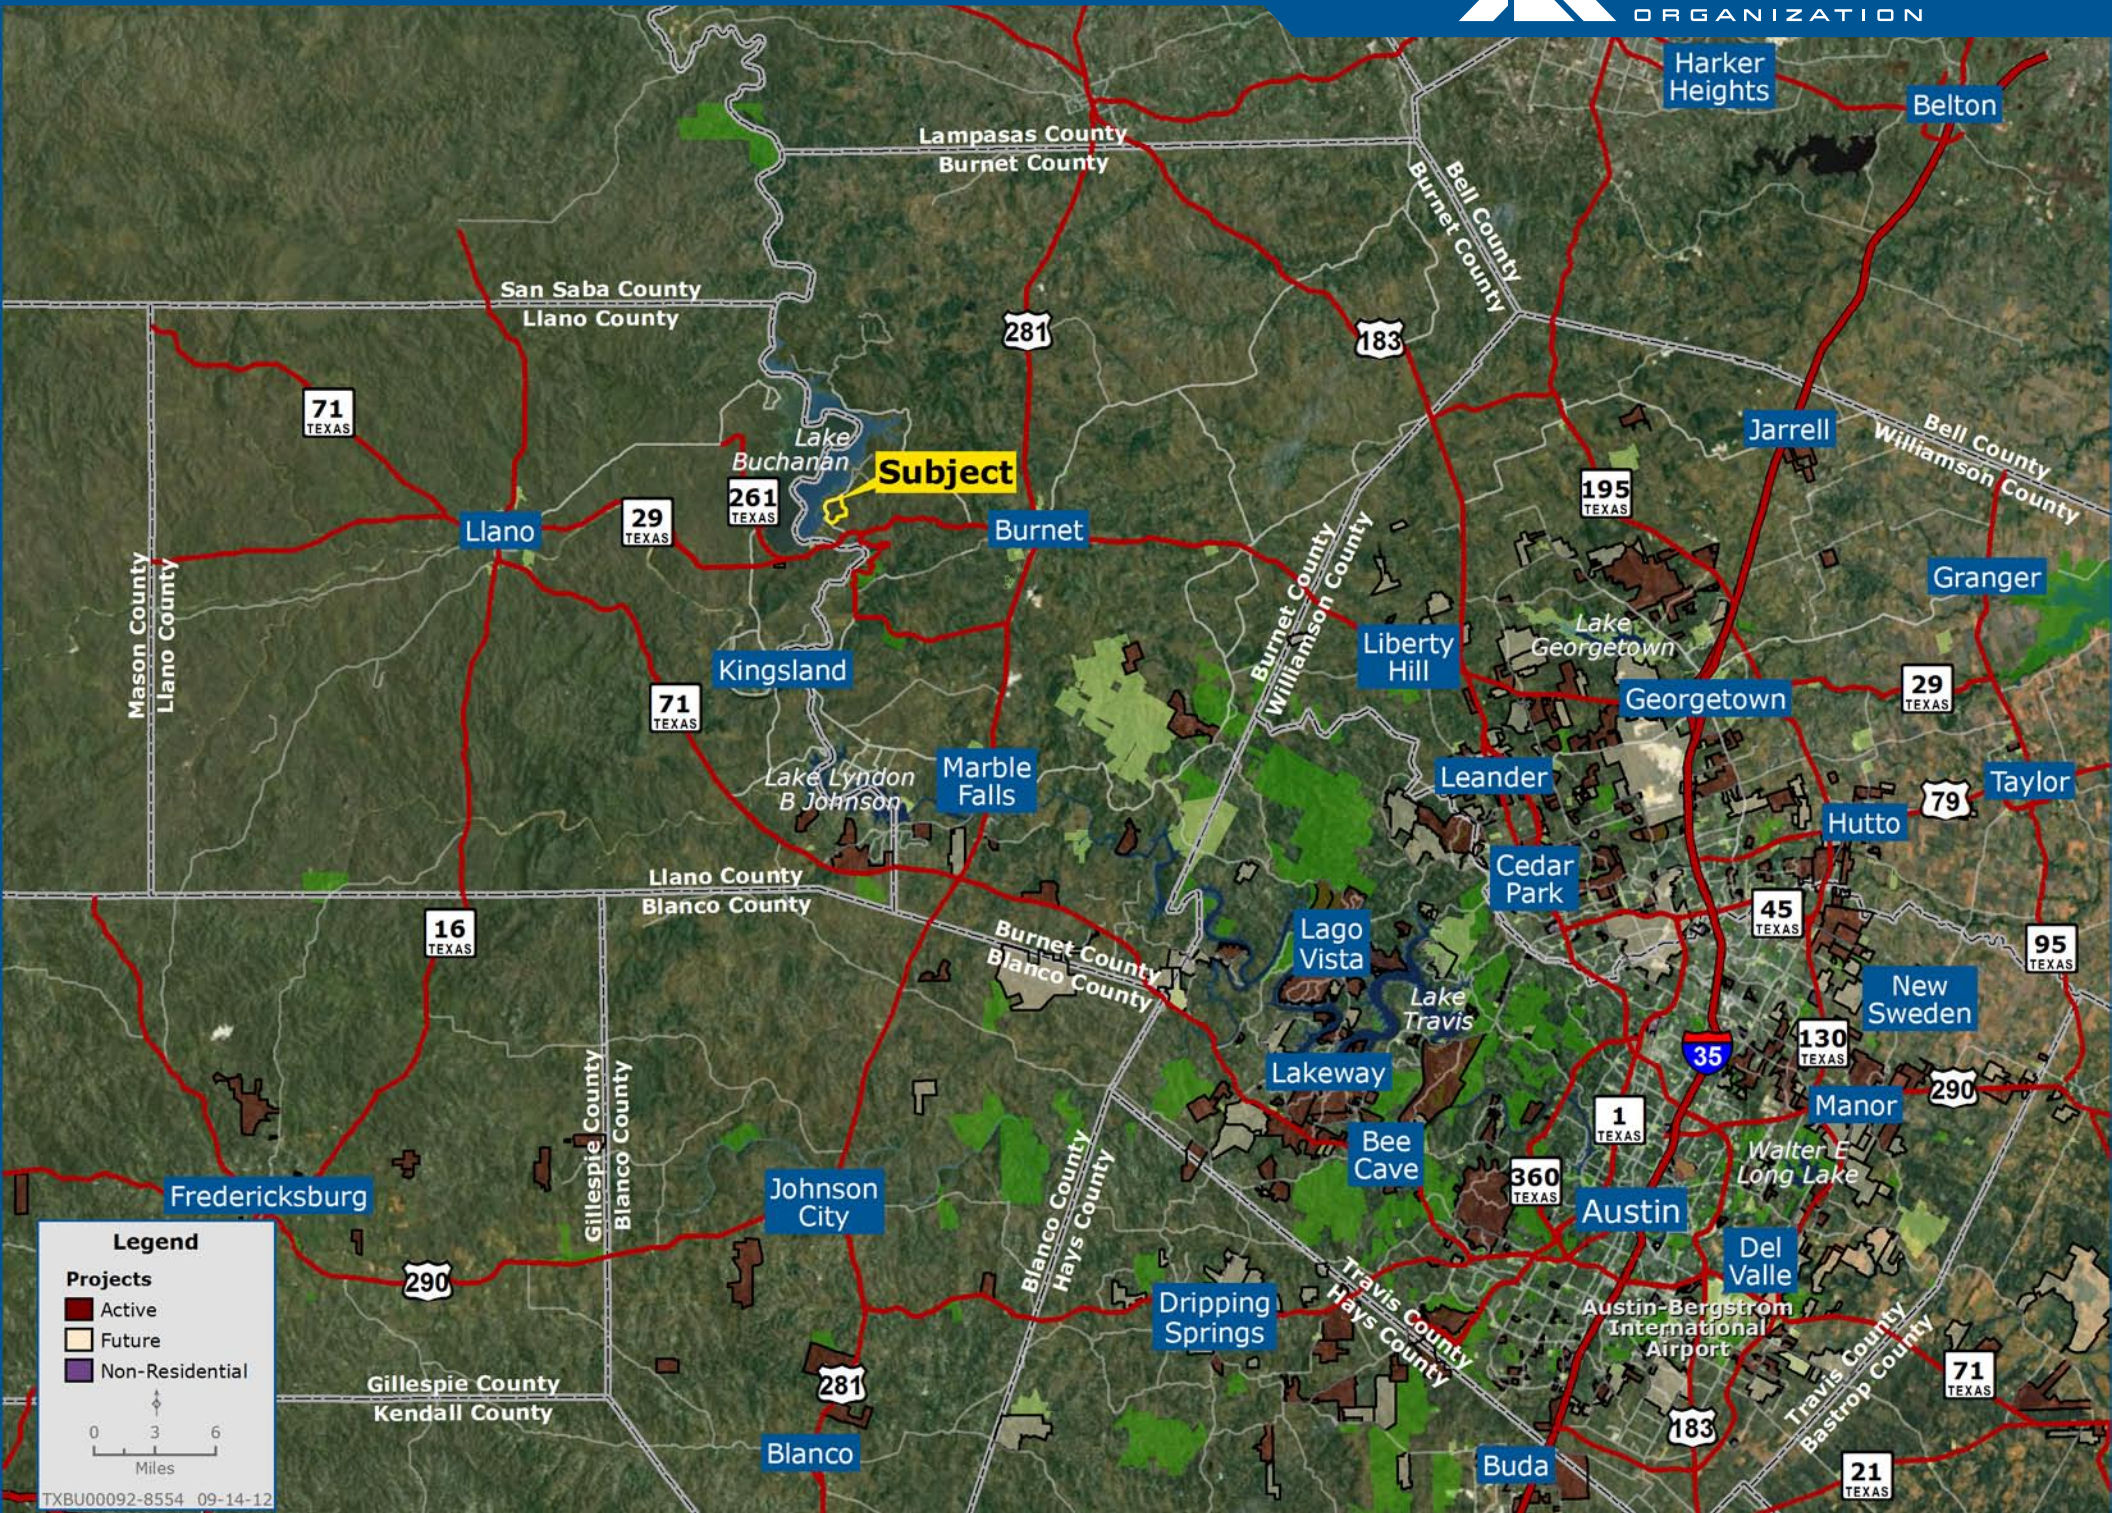

Easement: The property is bisected by an LCRA transmission line.

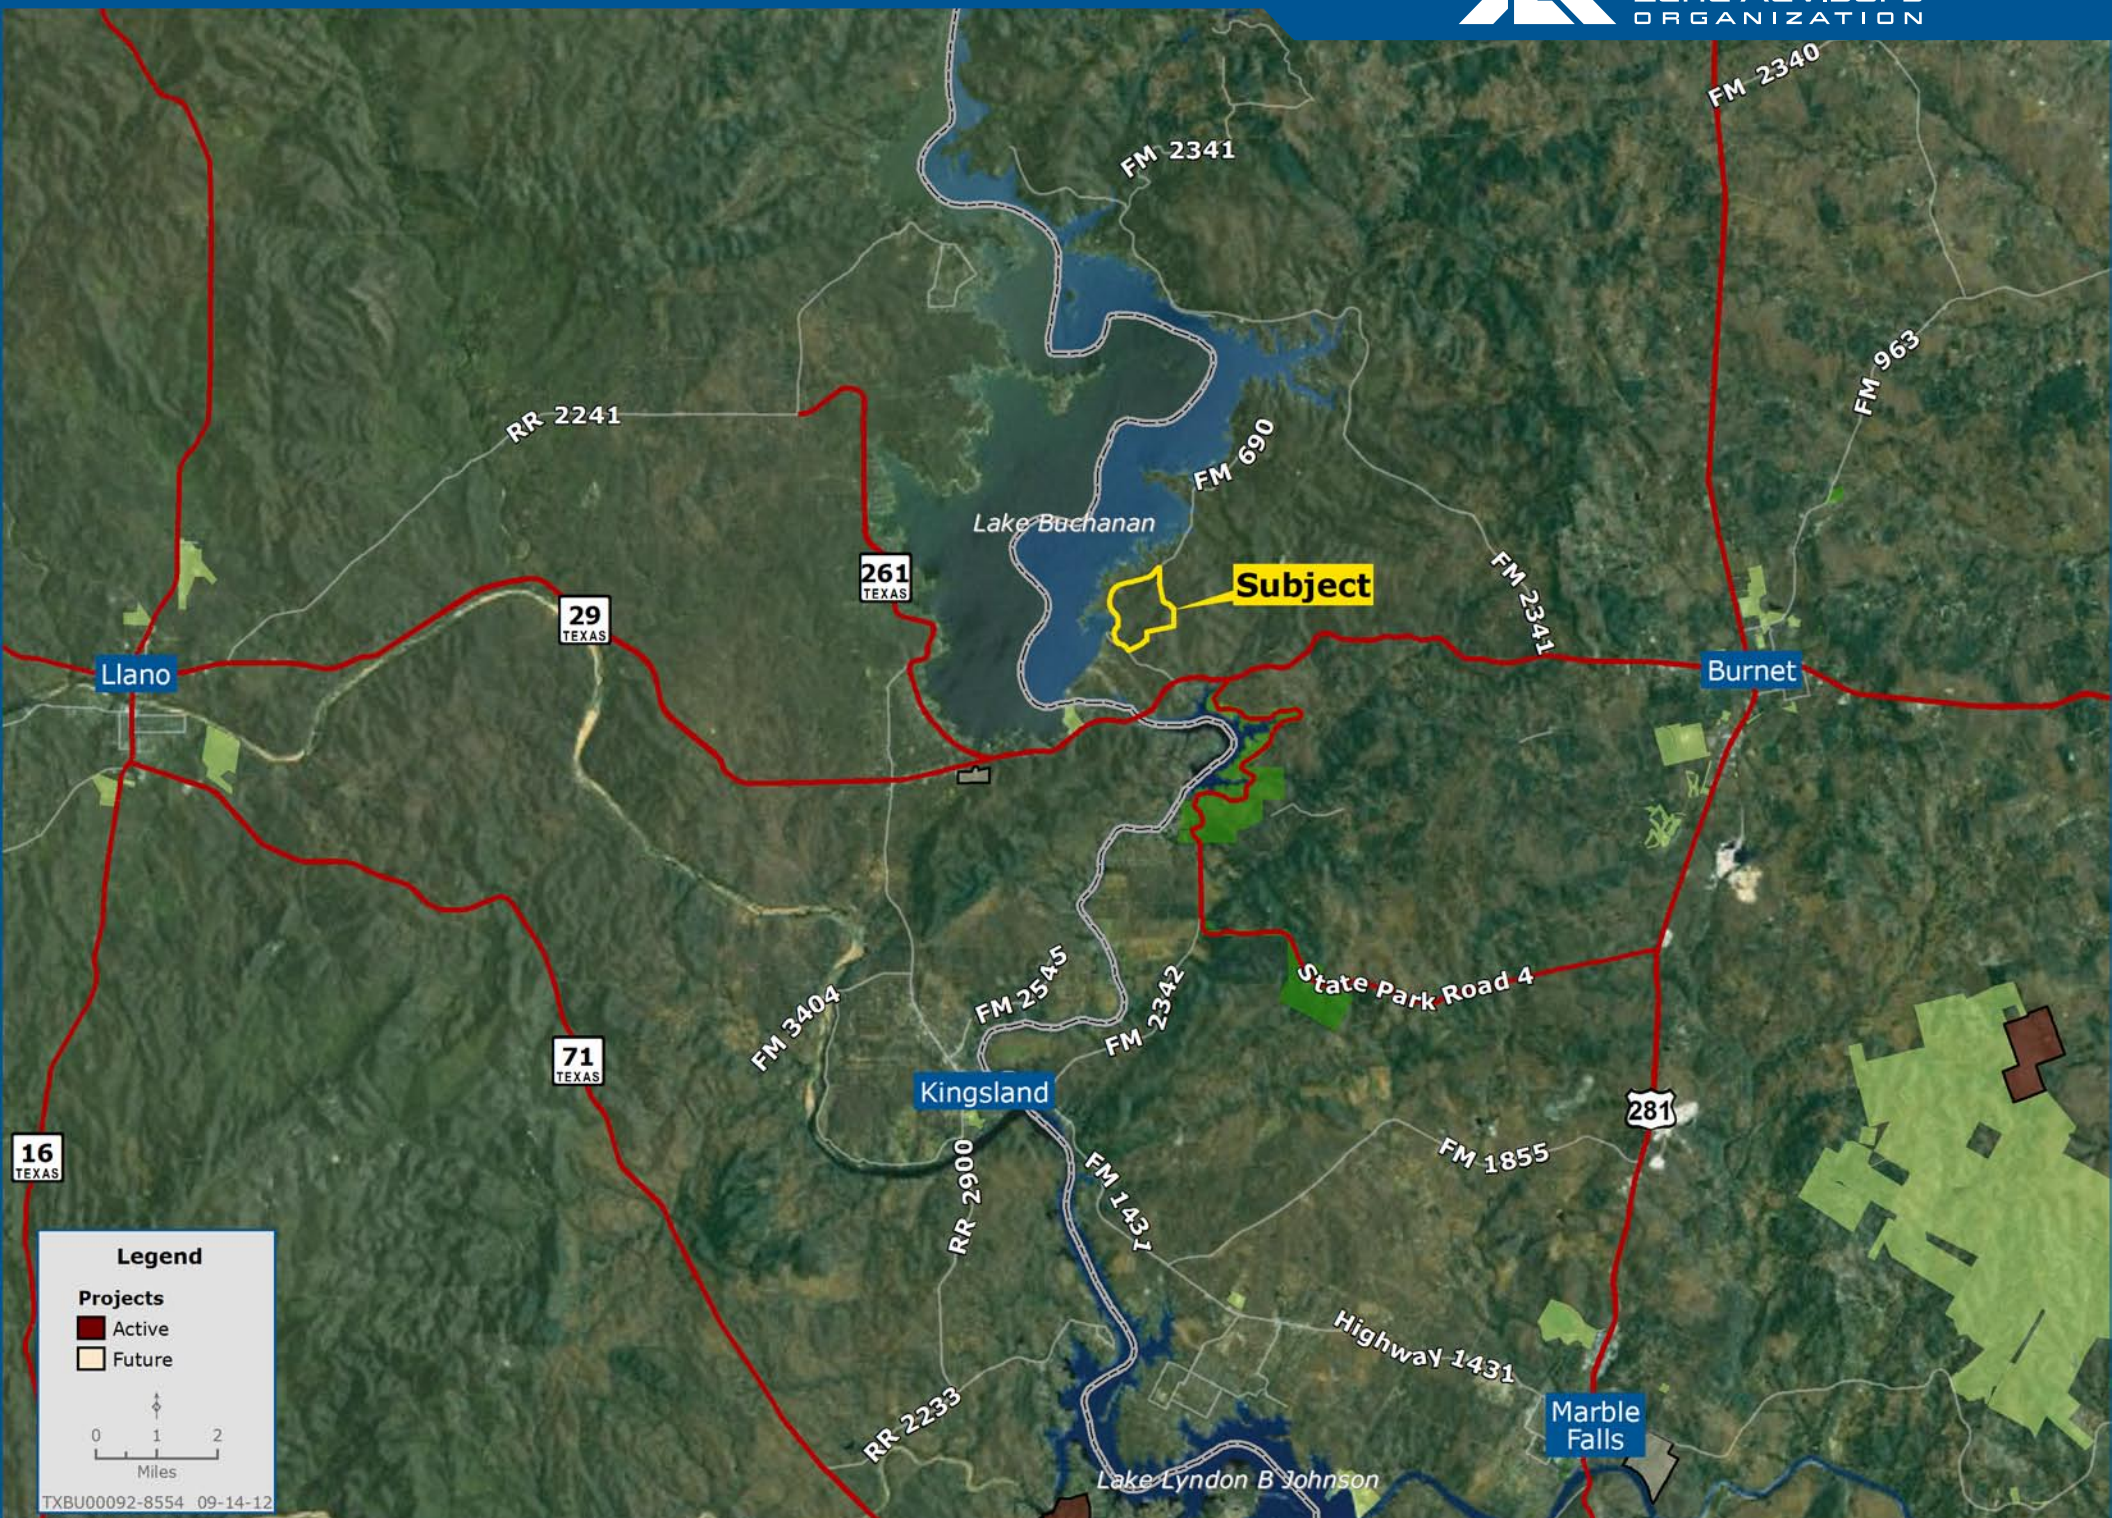

Comments: This ranch provides the opportunity to experience the best of a hill country ranch and lake house in one. Being located on RR 690, immediately across from the Big Chief RV Park and boat launch and only 2 miles from Inks Lake State park, accessing Lake Buchanan and Inks Lake for fishing, boating and swimming is as simple as can be. Combined with outstanding wildlife consisting of whitetail deer, turkey, wild hogs, dove and duck this property is a sportsman's dream. With over two miles of frontage along RR 690, this property has realistic development potential.

APPROVED BY THE TEXAS REAL ESTATE COMMISSION FOR VOLUNTARY USE

Texas law requires all real estate licensees to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

INFORMATION ABOUT BROKERAGE SERVICES:

Before working with a real estate broker, you should know that the duties of a broker depend on whom the broker represents. If you are a prospective seller or landlord (owner) or a prospective buyer or tenant (buyer), you should know that the broker who lists the property for sale or lease is the owner's agent. A broker who acts as a subagent represents the owner in cooperation with the listing broker. A broker who acts as a buyer's agent represents the buyer. A broker may act as an intermediary between the parties if the parties consent in writing. A broker can assist you in locating a property, preparing a contract or lease, or obtaining financing without representing you. A broker is obligated by law to treat you honestly.

IF THE BROKER REPRESENTS THE OWNER: The broker becomes the owner's agent by entering into an agreement with the owner, usually through a written - listing agreement, or by agreeing to act as a subagent by accepting an offer of subagency from the listing broker. A subagent may work in a different real estate office. A listing broker or subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first. The buyer should not tell the owner's agent anything the buyer would not want the owner to know because an owner's agent must disclose to the owner any material information known to the agent.

IF THE BROKER REPRESENTS THE BUYER: The broker becomes the buyer's agent by entering into an agreement to represent the buyer, usually through a written buyer representation agreement. A buyer's agent can assist the owner but does not represent the owner and must place the interests of the buyer first. The owner should not tell a buyer's agent anything the owner would not want the buyer to know because a buyer's agent must disclose to the buyer any material information known to the agent.

IF THE BROKER ACTS AS AN INTERMEDIARY: A broker may act as an intermediary between the parties if the broker complies with The Texas Real Estate License Act. The broker must obtain the written consent of each party to the transaction to act as an intermediary. The written consent must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. The broker is required to treat each party honestly and fairly and to comply with The Texas Real Estate License Act. A broker who acts as an intermediary in a transaction:

1. Shall treat all parties honestly;
2. May not disclose that the owner will accept a price less than the asking price unless authorized in writing to do so by the owner;
3. May not disclose that the buyer will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer unless authorized in writing to do so by the buyer; and
4. May not disclose any confidential information or any information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose unless authorized in writing to disclose the information or required to do so by The Texas Real Estate License Act or a court order or if the information materially relates to the condition of the property.

With the parties' consent, a broker acting as an intermediary between the parties may appoint a person who is licensed under The Texas Real Estate License Act and associated with the broker to communicate with and carry out instructions of one party and another person who is licensed under that Act and associated with the broker to communicate with and carry out instructions of the other party.

If you choose to have a broker represent you, you should enter into a written agreement with the broker that clearly establishes the broker's obligations and your obligations. The agreement should state how and by whom the broker will be paid. You have the right to choose the type of representation, if any, you wish to receive. Your payment of a fee to a broker does not necessarily establish that the broker represents you. If you have any questions regarding the duties and responsibilities of the broker, you should resolve those questions before proceeding.

Real estate licensee asks that you acknowledge receipt of this information about brokerage services for the licensee's records.
