DELEGATES OF THE PEOPLE OF TEXAS.

AT THE TOWN OF WASHINGTON.

— 254 —

Nations, as well as individuals, are drawn aside for their vote by the public opinion of

It is concerned in a danger, for a long time, one of our citizens, for no other reason, to make concessions to preserve the atmosphere of our constitution and the establishment of a state government.

It has demanded us to deliver up our arms, which are essential to our defence—the rightful property of freemen—and furnishable only to freemen governments.

ed with all the rights and attributes which properly belong to independent nations; and, conscious of the rectitude of our intentions, we fearlessly and resolutely commit the issue to the decision of the supreme Arbiter of the destinies of nations.
