Madison, GA

← 9.844 acres

An aerial photograph showing a large property outlined in red. The property is irregularly shaped and contains a large pond in the lower-left quadrant, a house with a dark roof in the upper-middle, and several smaller buildings and sheds in the lower-right. The surrounding area includes fields, trees, and a road running along the top and right edges. A white arrow points from the text '9.844 acres' to the red-outlined boundary.
