109 acres in Harrison County Missouri. One of the best counties for Whitetails in Missouri. This farm borders the Harrison County Lake. Take a look at the aerial! The feilds are very secluded making for great food plots. You have excellent access from any direction. There is plenty of mature timber and some nice building sites. What a great getaway and with great hunting and a good fishing lake within walking distance it's a quality of life that's hard to find, especially at this great price!
