

We hope that this home becomes the next best step in your life. It was for us. We wish you the best.

Welcome Home !!!

- What we love about our land!!!
- The setting is high above the Crooked River Valley
- We love the long winding secluded Drive
- We love the views over the valley
- We love having a Conservation Area as our neighbor
- We love all the wildlife that visits us constantly
- We love being able to ride our horses in the conservation area
- We love watching the sun rise over our pond from the balcony
- We love having a nice newer barn with 5 stalls for our horses
- We love having a work shop with water and electricity.
- We enjoy using the round pen with our horses.
- We love entertaining outside and using our gazebo
- We love having friends weddings on our property
- We love seeing our log home at the top of our property when we come home
- We love the seclusion and privacy our driveway and gate give us.
- We love the quiet and privacy that living on this hilltop gives us.
- We love having a pond that we can see from our home.

Welcome Home !!!

What we love about our house

We love that our log home always seems warm no matter the weather

We love that every window gives a gorgeous view of the outside

We love that the 7400+ sf give us plenty of room to entertain and have overnight visitors

We love the open look from, and to, our large loft areas

We love the two story stone fireplace that soars from the basement to the peak of the house

We love our master suite with it's two walk in closets

We love the jacuzzi tub for two in our master suite

We love the porches that surround our house with great views and protection no matter the weather

We love the upstairs balcony that lets us watch wildlife and our pond.

We love having zoned HVAC with two geo thermal systems and two systems upstairs

We just love our formal dining room with it's elegant wood

We love the impression our home makes when your drive to it

We love the sunken living room and conversation area

We love the screened in porch that lets us enjoy the outdoors

We love the 10 ceiling fans that accentuate the gentle breezes that almost always blow

We love our finished basement with it's wet bar, exercise room, recreation room, office, storage and walking out to the yard.
