Oehlrichs, Fall River County, South Dakota

LOCATION & ACCESS

The Bolln Ranch is located approximately 20 miles north of Chadron, Nebraska with over 95% of the ranch located in Fall River County, which lies in the southwestern corner of southwest corner of South Dakota. From Chadron, Nebraska, the ranch is reached by traveling north of Chadron, Nebraska approximately 19 miles on County Road 3, crossing four autogates where you turn right onto a private road, traveling east approximately one mile to the ranch headquarters. County Road 3 is primarily a dirt road for approximately 12 miles until it turns into a graveled county road.

SIZE

9,268.17± Deeded Acres
12,462± Buffalo Gap National Grasslands Lease Acres
21,730.17± Total Contiguous Acres

DESCRIPTION OF THE LAND & ELEVATION

The Bolln Ranch is located east of the southern edge of the scenic Black Hills between the ponderosa pine and prairie ecosystems of South Dakota. The topography of the ranch is rolling grass pastures with the elevation of the ranch at approximately 3,245 feet above sea level. Native grasses, along with evergreen and cottonwood trees, make up the vegetative cover on the ranch which is located in excellent grass country.

The Bolln Ranch is a quality grass ranch with a variety of species of hard grasses, all high in protein. There are several acres of dryland hay fields located along the creek bottoms of the ranch, and depending upon precipitation, the amount of hay that can be harvested varies. In 2019, the ranch produced over 1,600 large bales of hay which is being used as supplemental feed for the cattle.

Exterior fences are four to five strands of barbed wire, all of which are represented to be in good to excellent condition. Within the past six years, the owners have constructed over 23 miles of new fence.

Three active livestock markets are easily accessible from the Bolln Ranch. The markets are located in Crawford, Nebraska, 58 miles southwest; Rushville, Nebraska, 70 miles southeast; and Gordon, Nebraska, 81 miles southeast.

OPERATION & CARRYING CAPACITY

The Bolln Ranch is currently a traditional cow/calf operation. The owner rates the present carrying capacity of the ranch at 700 cow/calf pairs year-round with supplemental feeding during the winter months. Owner is currently running 600 cow/calf pairs year-round along with 25 to 30 bulls as well as 240 head of yearlings during the summer grazing season.

Historically, the owners put the cattle on the forest service permit acres for summer grazing from the middle of May to the end of October. Calves are then weaned with average weaning weights of steer calves is 670 pounds and heifer calves at 635 pounds. Three livestock markets in proximity to this ranch are Crawford, Scottsbluff, and Torrington.

NOTE: Carrying capacity can vary due to weather conditions and management practices. Interested parties should conduct their own analysis.

SOILS

Soils on the Bolln Ranch consist primarily of silty clay, fine sandy loams and silt loams.

REAL ESTATE TAXES

The real estate taxes in are assessed at approximately $2/acre or approximately $19,000 a year for the Bolln Ranch.

WATER

Ample water is provided to the deeded and grassland permit lease acres from the Fall River Water Users District's pipeline as well as from two private water wells that feed into these pipelines along with several stock water dams and reservoirs. The Pioneer Cooperative Grazing District (PCGD), in conjunction with the Fall River Water Users District (FRWUD), provides water via pipelines to several tire tanks located throughout the 12,462 acres of the USFS permit currently allotted to the owners of the Bolln Ranch. All the pipelines on the ranch were replaced in 2006 with high density polyethylene (HDPE) pipe which is known for its high level of impermeability and strength along with its use in high pressure pipelines.

The cost for water from the Fall River Water Users District and Pioneer Cooperative Grazing District averages approximately $13,000 each year. The Fall River Water Users District provides water to the ranch headquarters as well as to pipelines that feed into other pipelines that travel to approximately 60 tire stock water tanks located throughout the ranch. The water wells located on the ranch are approximately 75 feet in depth and also supply water via pipelines to tire tanks. There are three meters on the wells and the cost per month is $175. The water in several reservoirs located throughout the ranch provides additional water for livestock and wildlife.

In the event of a sale, all water rights permitted and adjudicated to the subject property shall be transferred to the buyers.

FOREST SERVICE PERMIT INFORMATION

There are a total of 12,462± acres of Buffalo Gap National Grasslands which is a summer grazing allotment that is a single pasture lying on the eastern side of the ranch. Water for the allotment is provided by the Fall River Water Users District and Pioneer Cooperative Grazing District via pipelines. The Bolln Slim Buttes Allotment permit is allowed 1,839 AUMs which the owners calculate to 700 cow/pairs plus 35 bulls that are put onto the allotment from around the middle of May to the end of October. The 2019 cost per AUM was $1.35 which equated to approximately $2,482.65.

Forest Service grazing permits are up for renewal every 10 years and allotment #00419 is up for renewal in 2020. For more information, please contact the Buffalo Gap National Grasslands office located in Hot Springs, South Dakota at (605) 745-4107, or visit their website at <https://www.fs.usda.gov/nebraska>. COMMUNITY AMENITIES

Hot Springs, South Dakota, is the county seat for Fall River County and is located approximately 20 miles northwest of the Bolln Ranch. Known as the Southern Gateway to the Black Hills, Hot Springs is a friendly town with beautiful sandstone architecture and is home to Evans Plunge and its soothing natural hot springs. It is next door to several famous attractions such as America's Ice Age treasure, the Mammoth Site, and the Wild Horse Sanctuary where American mustangs roam free on 11,000 acres. Hot Springs is minutes away from Custer State Park, Wind Cave National Park, and is less than an hour from Mount Rushmore. The Hot Spring's economy is supported by the U.S. Veteran's Administration Medical Center, the South Dakota State Soldier's Home, Art Advantage, county and state jobs, as well as several retail stores, restaurants, motel, banks, and a kindergarten through 12th grade school district.

Edgemont, South Dakota is a small, friendly western town offers all the amenities of a rural community: kindergarten through high school system, banks, restaurants, public library, museum, local airport, and government offices. The town's location is ideal for the hunter, fisherman, or the vacationer as it is located within a short driving distance of all the major lakes, rivers and tourist attractions in the Black Hills. Edgemont is also home to the southern trailhead of Mickelson Trail, which offers cycling, horseback riding and hiking through the beautiful Black Hills. For more information, please visit the Edgemont Chamber of Commerce's web site at <http://www.edgemont-sd.com>.

Chadron, Nebraska is the county seat of Dawes County and home to Chadron State College. This historic city features several amenities including schools, shopping, medical facilities, banks, restaurants, golf course, several museums, libraries, Mari Sandoz High Plains Heritage Center, and much more. Located in and around Chadron are several historical sites:

- Chadron State Park, Nebraska's oldest state park
- Toadstool Park which is known for its unusual geological formations
- The Hudson-Meng Bison Kill, a modern archeological excavation in progress
- Agate Fossil Beds National Monument, a 3,050-acre National Monument located on the Niobrara River

Chadron hosts annual events such as Fur Trader Days held every July and the Dawes County Fair usually held the last week of July into the first week of August each year.

Rapid City, the county seat for Pennington County, is the second largest city in the state of South Dakota and is located on the eastern side of the Black Hills. Thousands of visitors travel here every year to visit the many attractions, national parks and monuments found throughout the area. Rapid City is the home of Ellsworth Air Force Base which is northeast of the city. The city is also home to many colleges and technical schools, is a major medical care center for a five-state region, and has many cultural resources usually found only in much larger urban areas. REAL ESTATE RELATIONSHIPS DISCLOSURE

South Dakota real estate brokers are required to develop and maintain a written office policy that sets forth agency and brokerage relationships that the broker may establish. The broker must disclose in writing the types of agency and brokerage relationships the broker offers to consumers and to allow a consumer the right to choose or refuse among the various real estate relationships. The following real estate relationships are permissible under South Dakota law.

Single Agent-Seller's/Landlord's Agent: Works on behalf of the seller/landlord and owes duties to the seller/landlord, which include good faith, loyalty, and fidelity. The agent will negotiate on behalf of and act as an advocate for the seller/landlord. The agent may not disclose confidential information without written permission of the seller or landlord.

Single Agent-Buyer's/Tenant's Agent: Works on behalf of the buyer/tenant and owes duties to the buyer/tenant which include good faith, loyalty, and fidelity. The agent will negotiate on behalf of and act as an advocate for the buyer/tenant. The agent may not disclose confidential information without written permission of the buyer or tenant.

Disclosed Limited Agent: Works on behalf of more than one client to a transaction, requiring the informed written consent of the clients before doing so. A limited agent may not disclose confidential information about one client to another without written permission releasing that information. While working to put the transaction together, agents in a limited agency transaction cannot negotiate nor advocate solely on behalf of either the seller/landlord or buyer/tenant. A limited agent may not be able to continue to provide other fiduciary services previously provided to the client.

Appointed Agent: Works on behalf of the seller/landlord or buyer/tenant and owes the same duties to the client as that of a single agent. A seller/landlord or buyer/tenant with an appointed agency agreement is represented by agents specifically named in the agreement. Any agents of the firm not named in the agreement do not represent the seller/landlord or buyer/tenant. The named appointed agent acts solely on behalf of his or her client and may only share confidential information about the client with the agent's responsible broker or the broker's designated broker who is also named in the agreement. Other agents in the firm have no duties to the seller/landlord or buyer/tenant and may act solely on behalf of another party in the transaction. The responsible broker and the broker's designee act as a disclosed limited agent when appointed agents within the same firm are representing their respective clients in the same transaction.

Transaction Broker: Exercises reasonable skill and care in assisting one or more parties with a real estate transaction without being an advocate for any party. Although the transaction broker will help facilitate the transaction, the licensee will serve as a neutral party, offering no client-level services (such as negotiation) to the customer. The transaction broker may not disclose confidential information about a party to another without written permission releasing that information.

Duties of a buyer, tenant, landlord, or seller: The duties of the real estate licensees in a real estate transaction do not relieve a party to a transaction from the responsibility to protect the party's own interests. Persons should carefully read all documents to ensure that they adequately express their understanding of the transaction. If legal or tax advice is desired, consult a competent professional in that field.

All real estate licensees must provide disclosure of all actually known adverse material facts about the subject property or a party's ability to perform its obligations.

South Dakota law requires a written agreement which sets forth the duties and obligations of the parties as described in the brokerage relationships itemized above.

The office policy of _____ (company) is to offer only those services marked above.
