FARM HISTORY

FAMILY OWNED FOR OVER 150 YEARS!

THE ACRES THAT REMAIN FROM THE ORIGINAL 3,200 ACRE FARM WILL BE OFFERED FOR SALE FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 156 YEARS!

In 2015, this farm was recognized by The Iowa Farm Bureau as a Heritage Farm and was featured as a historic landmark along "The Don Berry Trail" by Don Berry himself, a life long county resident and publisher of what is now known as the Record Herald and Indianola Tribune. In 1983, descendants Roy & Betty Ogle officially certified and adopted the farm name of Valley View Farm.

This breathtaking panorama of the Squaw Creek Valley is known as Ogle's Overlook. Early pioneer Harrison Ogle owned over 3200 acres of this land in the 1860's. The valley looks much the same today as it did when Don Berry took this photo in 1968. Like many of the early settlers in this country, the Ogle family has continued to live and farm this beautiful valley carrying on the spirit of our pioneer heritage. -Don Berry Trail, Scenic and Historic Driving Tour of Warren County, Iowa.
