- If this application is for property that is less than 10 acres in size, a taxpayer must submit additional relevant records providing proof of bona fide agricultural use.
- Although not required, the applicant(s) for a property having more than 10 acres may wish to provide additional information to assist the board of assessors in making their determination. This information may include:
  - Plans or programs for the production of agricultural and timber products. 0
  - Evidence of participation in a government subsidy program for crops or timber. 0

  - Receipts that substantiate a bona fide conservation use, such as receipts for feed, equipment, etc.

    Income tax records, such as copies of a previously filed Federal Schedule F or the appropriate entity return (e.g., Federal Form 1065, 1120, etc.)
- The Board of Tax Assessors can only deny an application if the use of the property does not meet the definition of bona fide agricultural property or if the ownership of the property is not in compliance with O.C.G.A. § 48-5-7.4.
