The Seven Mile Creek Tract is near the Rock Springs community, in Drew County Arkansas. This property is surrounded by industrial and nonindustrial timberland. Seven Mile Creek runs diagonally through the center of the property. The diversity of timber types and creek bottoms make this property potentially excellent recreational hunting property with near and long term timber invest opportunities. Historical access is via abandoned Drew CR 104 from the north and a native surface logging road from the east. The NRCS Web Soil Survey reports the predominant soils as moderately well drained silt loam and fine sandy loam soils with an average native site index for loblolly pine of 90 feet (Base Age 50). This property is located in the flood plain of Seven Mile Creek.

The attached tract map is thought to be accurate but should not be considered as a survey plat.
4. Conveyance will be by Warranty Deed, subject to all previous mineral conveyances, reservations, and exceptions, to any valid rights-of-way, easements, leaseholds, and to any protective covenants or restrictions, which may have been recorded affecting the property, with title assured though seller-provided title insurance policy. Property is being sold “As Is, Where Is, with all faults”. No environmental inspection or representation has been or will be made by seller. Owner WILL convey, any mineral rights they may own on this property.
5. Seller will pay prorated property taxes (to date of closing), deed preparation, and one-half (1/2) of the deed stamps. Buyer will pay recording fees and one-half (1/2) of the deed stamps. Should Buyer be required by a lender to purchase a lender's title insurance policy, the Buyer will pay any fees for such policy.
6. A local title company, selected by Seller, will conduct the closing with Buyer and Seller each paying one-half (1/2) of fees associated with closing services.
7. Property inspections shall be done in daylight hours. Seller and Kingwood Forestry Services, Inc. in no way warrant the conditions of the property, including access routes, and all persons entering upon the property do so at their own risk and accept said property in its existing condition during such inspections. All persons entering upon the property assume all risks and liabilities and agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Seller, its managers, agents, and employees from and against any and all claims, demands, causes of action, and damages resulting from any accident, incident, or occurrence arising out of, incidental to or in any way resulting from his or her inspection of the property or his or her exposure to the conditions of the property.
8. Hunting equipment (such as deer stands, feeders, trail cameras, etc.) and any other man-made items found on the property do not convey unless stated otherwise. Existing hunting leases will terminate at closing.
9. Kingwood Forestry Services, Inc. is the real estate firm representing the seller. Information provided is believed to be substantially correct, but is not guaranteed. Prospective buyers assume the responsibility for verifying this information to their satisfaction. Kingwood makes no representation for the Buyer.
