

An aerial photograph of a rural landscape. A large, irregularly shaped area in the center is highlighted in yellow. This yellow area is enclosed within a larger, roughly rectangular boundary marked by a blue line. The text "TRACT #3" is printed in white, bold, sans-serif font in the upper right portion of the blue-outlined area. The surrounding landscape consists of various shades of green, brown, and dark green, indicating different types of vegetation, fields, and possibly water bodies or wetlands.
