

Lower garden is no dig approach based on Charles Dowding's method. All newly established (4/21) beds are pure compost. The compost will be good for 5 years of harvest without needing amendments.

Upper garden is raised beds with Megan Mix from Cattlepoint Topsoil. 60/40 compost and topsoil beds enhanced with humus amendment.

9 Blueberries bushes - established
1 Apple tree - established
1 Pear tree - established
2 Hazelnut trees - young
1 Methley Plum tree - young
1 Olive tree - young (potted currently)
2 Fig trees - young but fruiting (potted currently)
3 Kiwi vines - 2 female/1 male - young
6 Raspberry vines
Strawberry patch

Perennials -
2 Artichoke plants
Asparagus
Sea Kale
Oregano, Rosemary, Vietnamese Coriander, Tarragon, Chamomile, Sage, Thyme, Mint, Mugwort, Valerian, Sorrel, Lavender
Horseradish
Roses
4 Lilacs - new
1 Weeping Willow Tree - new

Fall beds have been planted for a spring harvest of beets, cabbage, kohlrabi, broccoli, cauliflower, carrots

19 Chickens - 6-five months old
4-eight months old
5-one year old
4-three years old

Bees - FLOW hive (fancy hive that allows one to drain the honey without having to scrape and disrupt the hive). <https://www.honeyflow.com/collections/flow-hives>