ABOUT WEATHERFORD, TEXAS

The City of Weatherford is approximately 27.04 square miles. Interstate 20 runs along the City's southern boundary and provides for major access to Fort Worth (30 miles) and Dallas (60 miles).

Weatherford is situated such that it has maintained an independent identity from the Dallas Fort Worth Metroplex yet its close proximity to this major urban area has had a direct effect. Residents find themselves able to achieve a rural lifestyle without sacrificing the conveniences and labor market of a major metropolitan area.

Established in 1858 this historic town is proud of their heritage. The crown jewel is the breathtaking Parker County Courthouse. Completed in 1886 of Parker County limestone it is located in the geographical center of the County. The western roots run deep in this beautiful city from cattle drivers early on to the Parker County Sheriffs Posse Rodeo, Weatherford has also been named the Cutting Horse Capital of the World. With plentiful community events, activities, restaurants & shopping, Weatherford maintains a balance between a rural and city lifestyle, giving anyone who chooses to reside there the best of both worlds.

Weatherford ISD offers a large school opportunity with a small town approach. WISD is a pre-K through 12th grade public school district serving more than 8,100 students. With a mission is to educate, engage, and empower all students in a safe and positive learning environment to discover and reach their greatest potential.

From academics to athletics Weatherford has a variety of extracurricular activities to engage every student. Giving them the opportunity to learn respect for others, sportsmanship, dedication, responsibility, loyalty & teamwork. Strong foundations that will continue with them well past their time at WISD.

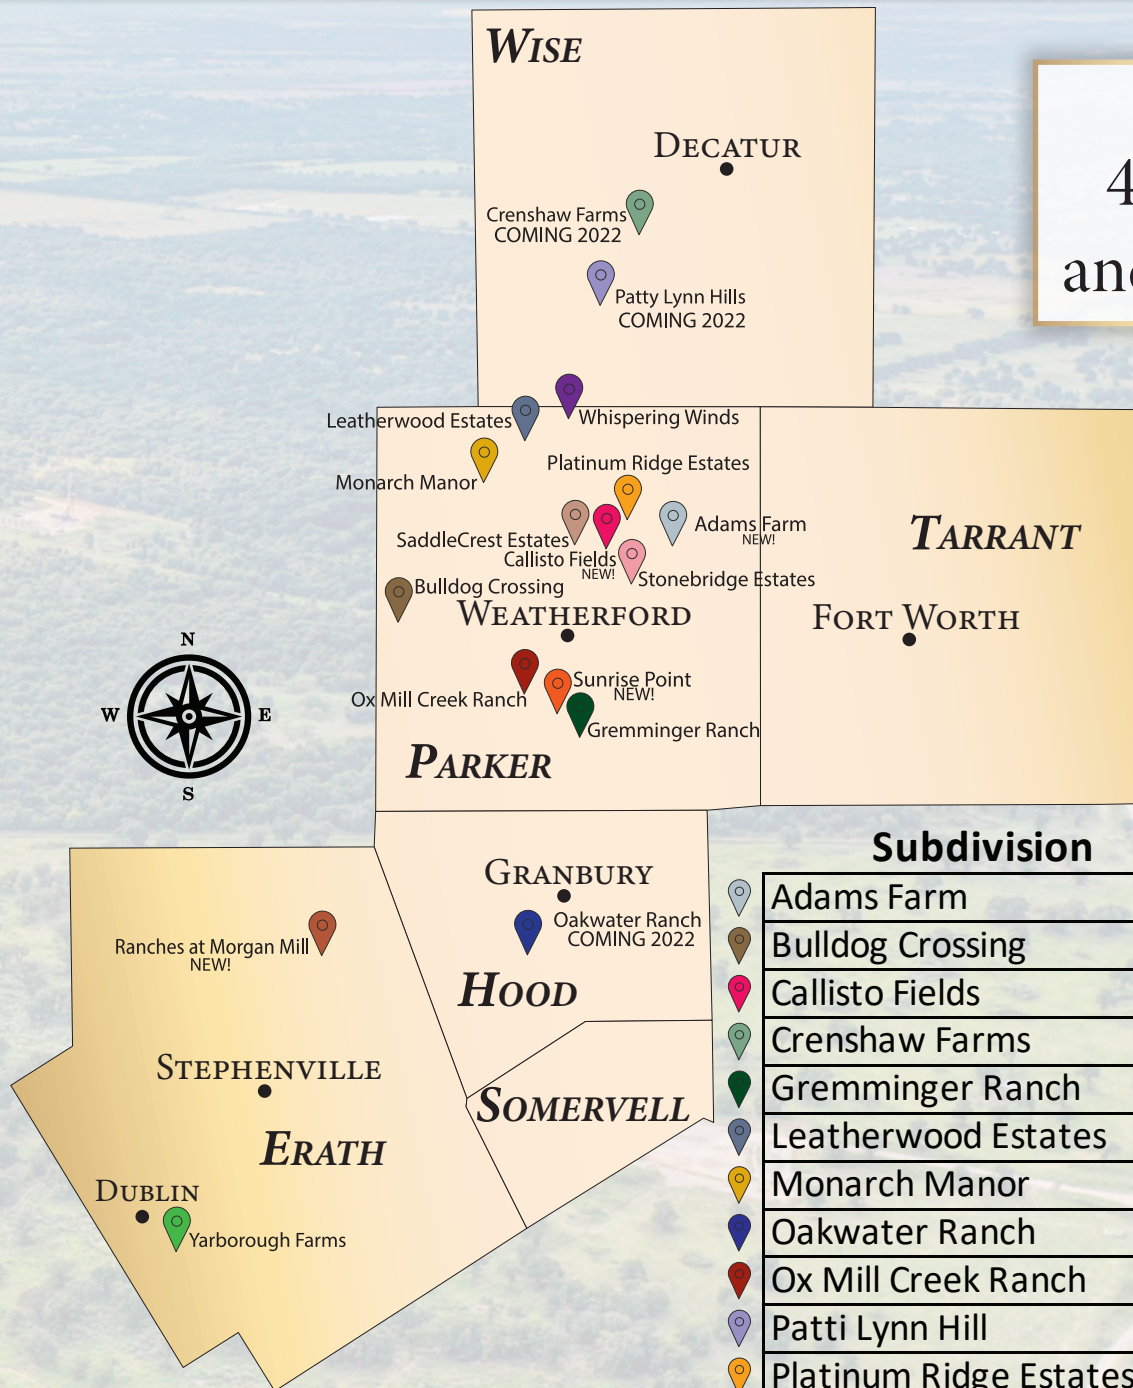

Weatherford ISD

Fun Fact: Mary Martin, internationally known Broadway Star, renowned for her portrayal of Peter Pan was born and is buried in Weatherford.

(noun)

:PASSION FOR A PERSON, CAUSE, OR OBJECT; EAGER DESIRE OR ENDEAVOR; ENTHUSIASTIC DILIGENCE; DEDICATION.

Zeal's Founder, Ryan D. Zamarron, is an enthusiastic, natural-born entrepreneur with a diligent desire for helping others. Prior to Real Estate, Ryan was the Vice President of a Special Events company with a focus in the Western Sports Industry and clientele. While working his way up to VP, Ryan managed several departments including, marketing, logistics, customer service, sponsorships and sales. In 2017 Ryan began his endeavor as a licensed Real Estate Agent. He gives credit to his former Brokers and friends, Wesley Stout and Jake Link, for pushing him to take the leap of faith and come aboard. While working alongside them, he gained a wealth of knowledge and an eager desire to someday own his own Real Estate Company. In early 2021, Ryan & Shana Zamarron founded Zeal, Realtors®, with a close team of agents, administrators and friends.
