SIZE & DESCRIPTION

499± Deeded Acres

This 499± contiguous deeded acre farm is set in the Eden Valley and includes pivot irrigation, grazing pastures, barns, and cattle working facilities. The perimeter of the farm is fenced with four and five strands of barbed wire, the 201.99± acres under a T&L ten tower pivot are fenced, and the remaining 297± acres are cross-fenced into three more pastures for rotational grazing. Irrigation water is coming from the Eden Valley Water District and is piped into a large holding pond. In 2021, 220 ton of two string high end horse quality hay was produced from the hay meadow. This meadow has the capacity to produce 3-4 ton of hay annually. The owner has used the hay field primarily as a rotational grazing pasture for cattle. The terrain of the farm consists of a flat horizon with pockets of sagebrush and native grass meadows. The elevation on the property varies between 6,400 and 6,600 feet above sea level.

WATER RESOURCES

- Two livestock wells are located on the property.
- One livestock well is solar-powered, and the second well is powered by electricity.
- Livestock water tanks are strategically placed around the perimeter of the hay field for rotational grazing.
- Irrigation water is piped into a holding pond for the 195.3 acres of water rights and the rights will transfer with the property.
- 2021 irrigation water cost totaled $3,111.65
- A second holding pond for livestock was designed with the overflow from the irrigation holding pond when additional water is available.

CARRYING CAPACITY / FARM OPERATIONS

The owners have historically utilized the property as an irrigated grazing operation for 200-160 cow/calf pairs during the grazing season, with one cutting of hay as well- which amounted to 220 tons in 2021. The grass under the pivot is mixture of brome and orchard with small amounts of native prairie grass and an older stand of alfalfa. The outlying 297± acres are primarily native prairie grass rich in protein with sagebrush pockets. The ranch is cross-fenced into four pastures for flexible management and efficient grazing rotation. All of the pastures are designed to easily move and gather cattle into the corrals at the cattle working facilities.

Grass hay operations in the Farson area typically produce 3-4 tons of high-quality grass hay per acre annually, with two cuttings and minimal regrowth for fall grazing.

“Carrying capacity and crop production can vary due to weather conditions and management practices. Interested parties should conduct their own analysis.”

SOILS

- Vonason loamy sand, 0 to 1 percent slopes- 75%
- Vonason loamy sand, 1 to 3 percent slopes- 9.3%
- Space City loamy sand, 0 to 3 percent slopes- 8.8%
- Vonason-Cotopaxi complex, nearly level and duned- 5.4%

REAL ESTATE TAXES

According to the Sweetwater County Assessor's records, the real estate taxes for the Gurr Farm are approximately $2,170 annually.

MINERAL RIGHTS

Any and all mineral rights associated with the ranch will be retained by the sellers if any.

UTILITIES

Electricity – Bridger Valley Electric – annual cost $3750

IMPROVEMENTS

Improvements on the Gurr Farm include the following:

- 2,880 sq. ft. metal pole barn built in 2008
- 576 sq. ft. metal farm utility building built in 2011
- 8'x40' metal shipping container custom made with cattle working chutes.
- Set of corrals constructed of metal panels with cattle working tub and chutes

COMMUNITY AMENITIES

Farson/Eden has a new K-12 school known for academic success and 6-man football. Go Pronghorns! There are 3 stores, 2 restaurants, Post Office, Community Center, a 4 day a week Eden Valley Telehealth Service, and a bar. Included in the taxes (no additional fees) are the Transfer Station for trash, a well-equipped Volunteer Fire Department and Ambulance service and a Cemetery District.

Rock Springs, Wyoming, 30 minutes away, is the largest town in Sweetwater County and offers all the desirable amenities of a traditional, rural Wyoming town with its small-town friendliness and atmosphere. Green River, Wyoming is the county seat to the west, separated by a few miles. Western Wyoming Community College, ranked 71st in the Nation, is a public community college in Rock Springs, Wyoming. Western offers certificates, associate degrees, and, in cooperation with the University of Wyoming in Laramie, Wyoming, bachelor's degree.

Classic Western scenery, fascinating wildlife, and interesting history make the area in and around Sweetwater County, home to families, history buffs, and nature lovers alike. This southwestern region of the state offers open prairies, winding rivers, sand dunes, and rocky canyons that make for scenic driving tours or road trips. Meanwhile, the miles-long Flaming Gorge Reservoir and the Fontenelle Reservoir are gorgeous playground in every season. You will also find tons of interesting historical attractions in the area and plenty of other great activities.

Rock Springs has two medical facilities at the Memorial Hospital of Sweetwater County and Aspen Mountain Medical Center, an excellent K-12 school system, farm and ranch supply stores, veterinary clinics, several banks and shopping facilities, churches, restaurants, an 18-hole municipal golf course, and an airport. For additional information regarding Rock Springs as well as the surrounding area, visit www.rockspringschamber.com.

Major employers in the Rock Springs area include Sweetwater County School District, BNSF Railway, General Chemical Company, FMC, Bridger Coal, Pacific Corp, OCI, Solvay Minerals, Memorial Hospital, Simplot, Union Pacific Railroad, Black Butte Coal and many support businesses for these major companies.

RECREATION & WILDLIFE

This farm is private and scenic with an elk and antelope population that reside on the nearby Bureau of Land Management property. The farm is located in elk Area 100 and antelope Area 92 and the property has historically met the qualifications for two land-owner elk and antelope licenses. Please see the Wyoming Game and Fish website at <https://wgfd.wyo.gov/> for more specific dates and hunting regulations. Other wildlife found on the Gurr Farm includes turkey, black bear, coyotes, mountain lion, bobcat, and upland game birds.

Wildlife is abundant in the Wind River Range just to the north, easy access for the public to view and enjoy the scenery. The Killpecker Sand dunes are 30 minutes away, available for 4-wheeling fun and exploration. Many mountain lakes in the Wind River Range are visited each year by hikers, horseback trail riders, and snowmobiles. Miles and miles of trails are available for the public. The Eden Valley reservoir has trout and boating along with camping.

Pinedale, Wyoming is considered the gateway to the Wind River's offering a large amount of outdoor activity with local shops, restaurants, hotels, skiing, and supplies. For more information, please visit: www.onlyinyourstate.com/wyoming/things-to-do-in-pinedale-wy.

STATE OF WYOMING

Wyoming is a state that offers an incredible diversity of activities, geography, climate, and history. Just a territory in 1869, Wyoming became the 44th state in 1890. The state's population is 563,626, and provides a variety of opportunities and advantages for persons wishing to establish residency.

Wyoming's energy costs are the second lowest in the nation, and the cost of living index is below the national average. Wyoming ranks among the top ten in the entire United States for educational performance. There is no state income tax, and Wyoming offers an extremely favorable tax climate:

- No personal income tax
- No corporate income tax
- No gross receipts tax
- No inventory tax
- Low retail sales tax
- Low property tax
- Favorable inheritance tax
- Favorable unemployment tax

According to Michael B. Sauter, Alexander E. M. Hess, Samuel Weigley, and Ashley C. Allen of 24/7 Wall Street, Wyoming is a model of good management and a prospering population. The state is particularly efficient at managing its debt, owing the equivalent of just 20.4% of annual revenue in fiscal 2010. Wyoming also has a tax structure that, according to the Tax Foundation, is the nation's most-favorable for businesses - it does not have any corporate income taxes. The state has experienced an energy boom in recent years. The mining industry, which includes oil and gas extracting, accounted for 29.4% of the state's GDP; more than in any other state. As of last year, Wyoming's poverty, home foreclosure, and unemployment rates were all among the lowest in the nation.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Clark & Associates Land Brokers, LLC

(Name of Brokerage Company)

REAL ESTATE BROKERAGE DISCLOSURE

When you select a Real Estate Broker Firm, Broker or sales person (all referred to as "Broker") to assist you in a real estate transaction, the Broker may do so in one of several capacities. In accordance with Wyoming's Brokerage Relationships Act, this notice discloses the types of working relationships that are available to you.

Seller's Agent. (Requires written agreement with Seller)

If a Seller signs a written listing agreement with a Broker and engages the Broker as a Seller's agent, the Broker represents the Seller. On properties listed with other brokerage companies, the Broker may work as an agent for the Seller if the Seller agrees to have the Broker work as a subagent. As an agent or subagent for the Seller, the Broker represents the Seller and owes the Seller a duty of utmost good faith, loyalty, and fidelity in addition to the obligations enumerated below for Intermediaries. Wyo. Stat. § 33-28-303(a). The Seller may be vicariously liable for the acts of the Seller's Agent or Seller's subagent that are approved, directed or ratified by the Seller.

Customer. (No written agreement with Buyer)

A customer is a party to a real estate transaction who has established no intermediary or agency relationship with any Broker in that transaction. A Broker may work as an agent for the Seller treating the Buyer as a customer or as an agent for the Buyer treating the Seller as a customer. Also when a Buyer or Seller is represented by another Broker, a Broker may work with the other Buyer or Seller as a customer, having no written agreement, agency or intermediary relationship with either party. A Broker working with a customer shall owe no duty of confidentiality to a customer. Any information shared with Broker may be shared with the other party to the transaction at customer's risk. The customer should not tell the Broker any information which the customer does not want shared with the other party to the transaction. The customer should not tell the Broker any information which the customer does not want shared with the other party to the transaction. The Broker must treat the customer honestly and with fairness disclosing all material matters actually known by the Broker. The Broker owes the customer the obligations enumerated below for Intermediaries which are marked with asterisks. W.S. § 33-28-310(a).

Buyer's Agent. (Requires written agreement with Buyer)

If a Buyer signs a written Buyer Agency Agreement with a Broker, the Broker will act as an agent for the Buyer. If so, the Broker represents the Buyer and owes the Buyer a duty of utmost good faith, loyalty and fidelity in addition to the obligations enumerated below for Intermediaries. The Buyer may be vicariously liable for the acts of the Buyer's Agent that are approved, directed or ratified by the Buyer. As a Buyer's Agent, Wyoming law requires the Broker to disclose to potential Sellers all adverse material facts, which may include material facts regarding the Buyer's financial ability to perform the terms of the transaction. Wyo. Stat. § 33-28-304(c). As a Buyer's Agent, the Broker has duties to disclose to the Buyer certain information; therefore, the Seller should not tell the Broker any information which the Seller does not want shared with the Buyer.

Intermediary. (Requires written agreement with Seller and/or Buyer)

The Intermediary relationship is a non-agency relationship which may be established between a Broker and a Seller and/or a Broker and a Buyer. A Seller may choose to engage a Broker as an Intermediary when listing a property. A Buyer may also choose to engage a Broker as an Intermediary. An Intermediary shall not act as an agent or advocate for any party and shall be limited to providing those services set forth below. Wyo. Stat. § 33-28-305.

As an Intermediary (Non-Agent), Broker will not represent you or act as your agent. The parties to a transaction are not legally responsible for the actions of an Intermediary and an Intermediary does not owe the parties the duties of an agent, including the fiduciary duties of loyalty and fidelity. Broker will have the following obligations to you:

- perform the terms of any written agreement made by the Intermediary with any party or parties to the transaction;
- exercise reasonable skill and care;*
- advise the parties to obtain expert advice as to material matters about which the Intermediary knows but the specifics of which are beyond the expertise of the Intermediary;*
- present all offers and counteroffers in a timely manner;*

- account promptly for all money and property the Broker received;*
- keep you fully informed regarding the transaction;*
- obtain the written consent of the parties before assisting the Buyer and Seller in the same real estate transaction as an Intermediary to both parties to the transaction;
- assist in complying with the terms and conditions of any contract and with the closing of the transaction;*
- disclose to the parties any interests the Intermediary may have which are adverse to the interest of either party;
- disclose to prospective Buyers, known adverse material facts about the property;*
- disclose to prospective Sellers, any known adverse material facts, including adverse material facts pertaining to the Buyer's financial ability to perform the terms of the transaction;*
- disclose to the parties that an Intermediary owes no fiduciary duty either to Buyer or Seller, is not allowed to negotiate on behalf of the Buyer or Seller, and may be prohibited from disclosing information about the other party, which if known, could materially affect negotiations in the real estate transaction.

As Intermediary, the Broker will disclose all information to each party, but will not disclose the following information without your informed consent:

- the motivating factors for buying or selling the property;
- that you will agree to financing terms other than those offered, or
- any material information about you, unless disclosure is required by law or if lack of disclosure would constitute dishonest dealing or fraud.

Change From Agent to Intermediary – In – House Transaction

If a Buyer who has signed a Buyer Agency Agreement with the Broker wants to look at or submit an offer on property Broker has listed as an agent for the Seller, the Seller and the Buyer may consent in writing to allow Broker to change to an Intermediary (non-agency) relationship with both the Buyer and the Seller. Wyo. Stat. § 33-28-307.

An established relationship cannot be modified without the written consent of the Buyer or the Seller. The Buyer or Seller may, but are not required to, negotiate different commission fees as a condition to consenting to a change in relationship.

Designated Agent. (requires written designation by the brokerage firm and acknowledgement by the Buyer or Seller)

A designated agent means a licensee who is designated by a responsible broker to serve as an agent or intermediary for a Seller or Buyer in a real estate transaction. Wyo. Stat. § 33-28-301 (a)(x).

In order to facilitate a real estate transaction a Brokerage Firm may designate a licensee as your agent or intermediary. The Designated Agent will have the same duties to the Buyer and Seller as a Buyer's or Seller's Agent or Intermediary. The Broker or an appointed "transaction manager" will supervise the transaction and will not disclose to either party confidential information about the Buyer or Seller. The designation of agency may occur at the time the Buyer or Seller enters into an agency agreement with the Brokerage Firm or the designation of agency may occur later if an "in house" real estate transaction occurs. At that time, the Broker or "transaction manager" will immediately disclose to the Buyer and Seller that designated agency will occur.

Duties Owed by An Agent But Not Owed By An Intermediary.

WHEN ACTING AS THE AGENT FOR ONE PARTY (EITHER BUYER OR SELLER), BROKER HAS FIDUCIARY DUTIES OF UTMOST GOOD FAITH, LOYALTY, AND FIDELITY TO THAT ONE PARTY. A BROKER ENGAGED AS AN INTERMEDIARY DOES NOT REPRESENT THE BUYER OR THE SELLER AND WILL NOT OWE EITHER PARTY THOSE FIDUCIARY DUTIES. HOWEVER, THE INTERMEDIARY MUST EXERCISE REASONABLE SKILL AND CARE AND MUST COMPLY WITH WYOMING LAW. AN INTERMEDIARY IS NOT AN AGENT OF ADVOCATE FOR EITHER PARTY. SELLER AND BUYER SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ACTS OF AN INTERMEDIARY, SO LONG AS THE INTERMEDIARY COMPLIES WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF WYOMING'S BROKERAGE RELATIONSHIPS ACT. WYO. STAT. § 33-28-306(a)(iii).

THIS WRITTEN DISCLOSURE AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT, BY ITSELF, SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A CONTRACT OR AGREEMENT WITH THE BROKER OR HIS/HER FIRM. UNTIL THE BUYER OR SELLER EXECUTES THIS DISCLOSURE AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT, NO REPRESENTATION AGREEMENT SHALL BE EXECUTED OR VALID. WYO. STAT. § 33-28-306(b).

NO MATTER WHICH RELATIONSHIP IS ESTABLISHED, A REAL ESTATE BROKER IS NOT ALLOWED TO GIVE LEGAL ADVICE. IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT THIS NOTICE OR ANY DOCUMENT IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION, CONSULT LEGAL COUNSEL AND OTHER COUNSEL BEFORE SIGNING.

The amount or rate of a real estate commission for any brokerage relationships is not fixed by law. It is set by each Broker individually and may be negotiable between the Buyer or Seller and the Broker.
