DESCRIPTION

Located in the rapidly growing northeast quadrant of Central Florida, Matanzas Pointe is a fully entitled commercial shopping center site. Positioned strategically between the commercially unserved north Palm Coast communities (several thousand homes) and Palm Coast Park (fully approved DRI for over 3,000 residential units). Thousands of acres of land are under contract in the NE quadrant that are set to be commercial or residential uses. Just 3 minutes from the I-95 interchange on the corner of US 1 and Matanzas Woods Parkway. Close in proximity to key economic drivers including Flagler College, Historic St. Augustine, Crescent Beach, and Daytona International Speedway. Palm Coast has had a population increase of 27% since 2010, added several national retail stores, and with the expansion of AdventHealth, is now poised to retake its position as one of Florida's fastest growing MSA's.

PALM COAST NEWS

18 years in the making: New Matanzas exit for I-95 in Palm Coast opens today

By Matt Bruce matt.bruce@news-jrnl.com Published: Monday, March 28, 2016

"The interchange is the culmination of an effort that took nearly 20 years and cost more than $25 million when accounting for the $12.6-million Matanzas Woods Parkway overpass, which was dedicated in December 2006. The diamond-shaped concourse now includes exits and on-ramps to I-95's northbound and southbound lanes. It will become the fourth access point to the interstate in Flagler County and the first new interchange here since Palm Coast Parkway exits were built in the late-1970s."
