Re: Letter of Support
10550 Johnstown Road, New Albany, Oh 43054
Parcel ID No. 222-000400

Dear Mr. Fedner,

This letter serves to inform you that the City of New Albany is in support of parcel number 222-000400 extending a sanitary service lateral to the sanitary sewer along Central College Road (CC-13560).

The following conditions shall apply:

- a. This parcel is zoned residential and the sanitary sewer shall serve a single family residential home. If the parcel is rezoned, then the sewer connection shall be subject to further engineering study to evaluate downstream capacity and determine whether or not a different mainline sewer needs to be extended to the parcel.
- b. A professional engineer shall revise the sanitary tributary area on sheet 6 of 9 of the attached CC plan to include the parcel in question.
- c. The engineer of record assures that the final plans are approved by the City of New Albany and the City of Columbus.
- d. This parcel shall not be assembled with other lots to create a larger development area which may require increased sanitary flows.

The as-builts for CC-13560 are attached for quick reference.

Respectfully,
