

This satellite map displays the Columbia, South Carolina metropolitan area and surrounding regions. The city of Columbia is centrally located, with major highways like I-20 and I-26 intersecting. To the north, Lexington and Cayce are visible, while to the south, Orangeburg and Saint Matthews are shown. The map also includes labels for various smaller towns and landmarks, such as Lake Murray to the northwest and Congaree National Park to the east. A red triangle marker is positioned in the central part of the map, south of Columbia. A scale bar at the bottom right provides a reference for distances in feet, ranging from 0 to 80,000.
