There is a 5 foot Lake George Land Conservancy trail easement along the property's northern boundary which connects the Town of Bolton Pinnacle Preserve to the 2,700 acre New York State Cat and Thomas Mountain Preserve. This is a great asset offering direct access from the land to both public land holdings.

Frontage along Edgecomb Pond Road.

LOCATION

The property is situated in the hills on the western side of Lake George. The village of Bolton Landing is 1.5 miles to the east where there are public beaches and a boat launch.

The region is most famous for Lake George, however, in addition its an excellent jumping point for an array of recreational opportunities throughout the southern Adirondacks.

Bolton Landing is a 3.5 hour drive north from New York City and a 2.5 hour drive south from Montreal. The Albany International Airport is a 1 hour drive south.

SITE DESCRIPTION

The Narrows Overlook Parcel is characterized by a plateau along Edgecomb Pond Road where there are relatively flat house site options offering dramatic lake and mountain view possibilities. The land drops along some ledges to the east then flattens out again in an open mixed hardwood forest with a grass understory. There is a break in the ledge to the south where an internal road could be constructed for access to the lower portion of the property. Along the northern property boundary there is a 5 foot wide Lake George Land Conservancy trail easement, which links the Town of Bolton Pinnacle Preserve to the south with the New York State Cat and Thomas Mountain Forest to the north. The area is private and due to large lot size zoning restrictions unlikely to see significant further development.

ACCESS

Access is provided by the town maintained Edgecomb Pond Road, on which the property has approximately 460 feet of frontage. Due to the topography along the road frontage options to construct a driveway are limited to the northeastern portion of the property.

From the village of Bolton Landing go south on Lakeshore Drive for .2 miles. Make a right on to Mohican Hill Road and continue straight for 1.2 miles to Edgecomb Pond Road on the right. The property is located 1.5 miles on the right.

TAXES, TITLE & ZONING

Annual property taxes are $599.05. The deed can be found in Book 621, page 530 of the Warren County NY land records, where only parcel 171.00-1-1.12 is being sold.

New York State Disclosure Form for Buyer and Seller

THIS IS NOT A CONTRACT

New York State law requires real estate licensees who are acting as agents of buyers and sellers of property to advise the potential buyers and sellers with whom they work of the nature of their agency relationship and the rights and obligations it creates. This disclosure will help you to make informed choices about your relationship with the real estate broker and its sales associates.

Throughout the transaction you may receive more than one disclosure form. The law requires each agent assisting in the transaction to present you with this disclosure form. A real estate agent is a person qualified to advise about real estate.

If you need legal, tax or other advice, consult with a professional in that field.

Disclosure Regarding Real Estate Agency Relationships

Seller's Agent

A seller's agent is an agent who is engaged by a seller to represent the seller's interest. The seller's agent does this by securing a buyer for the seller's home at a price and on terms acceptable to the seller. A seller's agent has, without limitation, the following fiduciary duties to the seller: reasonable care, undivided loyalty, confidentiality, full disclosure, obedience and duty to account. A seller's agent does not represent the interests of the buyer. The obligations of a seller's agent are also subject to any specific provisions set forth in an agreement between the agent and the seller. In dealings with the buyer, a seller's agent should (a) exercise reasonable skill and care in performance of the agent's duties; (b) deal honestly, fairly and in good faith; and (c) disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the value or desirability of property, except as otherwise provided by law.

Buyer's Agent

A buyer's agent is an agent who is engaged by a buyer to represent the buyer's interest. The buyer's agent does this by negotiating the purchase of a home at a price and on terms acceptable to the buyer. A buyer's agent has, without limitation, the following fiduciary duties to the buyer: reasonable care, undivided loyalty, confidentiality, full disclosure, obedience and duty to account. A buyer's agent does not represent the interest of the seller. The obligations of a buyer's agent are also subject to any specific provisions set forth in an agreement between the agent and the buyer. In dealings with the seller, a buyer's agent should (a) exercise reasonable skill and care in performance of the agent's duties; (b) deal honestly, fairly and in good faith; and (c) disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the buyer's ability and/or willingness to perform a contract to acquire seller's property that are not inconsistent with the agent's fiduciary duties to the buyer.

Broker's Agents

A broker's agent is an agent that cooperates or is engaged by a listing agent or a buyer's agent (but does not work for the same firm as the listing agent or buyer's agent) to assist the listing agent or buyer's agent in locating a property to sell or buy, respectively, for the listing agent's seller or the buyer agent's buyer. The broker's agent does not have a direct relationship with the buyer or seller and the buyer or seller can not provide instructions or direction directly to the broker's agent. The buyer and the seller therefore do not have vicarious liability for the acts of the broker's agent. The listing agent or buyer's agent do provide direction and instruction to the broker's agent and therefore the listing agent or buyer's agent will have liability for the acts of the broker's agent.

Dual Agent

A real estate broker may represent both the buyer and seller if both the buyer and seller give their informed consent in writing. In such a dual agency situation, the agent will not be able to provide the full range of fiduciary duties to the buyer and seller. The obligations of an agent are also subject to any specific provisions set forth in an agreement between the agent, and the buyer and seller. An agent acting as a dual agent must explain carefully to both the buyer and seller that the agent is acting for the other party as well. The agent should also explain the possible effects of dual representation, including that by consenting to the dual agency relationship the buyer and seller are giving up their right to undivided loyalty. A buyer or seller should carefully consider the possible consequences of a dual agency relationship before agreeing to such representation.

Dual Agent with Designated Sales Agents

If the buyer and seller provide their informed consent in writing, the principals and the real estate broker who represents both parties as a dual agent may designate a sales agent to represent the buyer and another sales agent to represent the seller to negotiate the purchase and sale of real estate. A sales agent works under the supervision of the real estate broker. With the informed consent of the buyer and the seller in writing, the designated sales agent for the buyer will function as the buyer’s agent representing the interests of and advocating on behalf of the buyer and the designated sales agent for the seller will function as the seller’s agent representing the interests of and advocating on behalf of the seller in the negotiations between the buyer and seller. A designated sales agent cannot provide the full range of fiduciary duties to the buyer or seller. The designated sales agent must explain that like the dual agent under whose supervision they function, they cannot provide undivided loyalty. A buyer or seller should carefully consider the possible consequences of a dual agency relationship with designated sales agents before agreeing to such representation.
