WELCOME TO THE CALDWELL 51

INTRODUCING THE LOST CREEK 51, SITUATED NEAR COLUMBIA, LOUISIANA. From the moment you enter, you know you are at a turnkey place! This 51± acre tract is located behind a locked gate off Highway 4 in Caldwell Parish. The majority of the property is made up of old-growth hardwoods with some mixed pines providing a diverse habitat to sustain and hold wildlife. An established trail system is in place, and the land has been strategically managed to provide excellent conditions for deer and turkeys to thrive. Between select cuts, prescribed fire, and food plots, this tract has become a magnet for wildlife. Not only will you find a great place to hunt, but also a 2± acre pond is stocked with bass, copper nose bream, and channel cat for the whole family to enjoy. Within eye shot of the pond, you'll find a 20×20 fully enclosed shop on a concrete slab with a lean-to on either side of the building, making for a great spot to store your hunting equipment. A L3200 31 HP Kubota tractor, bush hog, grapple bucket, disc, cultipacker, and box blade are all negotiable with the sale of the property.

Tracts like this are a rare find! This unique place is turnkey and ready for someone to step in and start enjoying today. Along with the recreational value, this property is ready to hold your forever home. Power and water are on site for your convenience.
