DESCRIPTION

The Coleman Farm offers both excellent subsurface water along with unique surface water of the Leona River. Multiple strong Leona irrigation wells water the fertile soils that are prevalent. Owned by the same family since 1994.

IMPROVEMENTS

Multiple water wells and three pivots are the primary improvements. Pivot #1 is an 89 tower Reinke pivot since 1994. Pivot #2 serves the Pacman field and is a 7 tower Reinke with the pivot being a 3 tower Reinke that waters the 9-acre circle. The property is partially high fenced on the north and west boundaries. The south and East boundaries are not fenced. The wells are powered by 3-Phase electricity. There is an old farm house and a good road system.
