Property Summary

Welcome to your very own piece of Florida on 5.10 acres just outside the charming City of Brooksville by only ~7 minutes. This property offers an extra element of privacy by being set back from the road and accessed by a 15 FT wide easement. Here you will find many mature oaks, sugar plums, tangerine trees, and even wild orchids! On this property is a very unique ravine feature running close to the western boundary. General location can be seen on the topographic map. To get to the other side of the ravine or the greater remaining area of the property, you could place a culvert crossover point. Zoning on the property is agricultural, which allows for both conventional and mobile homes. Well and septic would be needed.

Highlights

- Unique ravine feature on property
- AG Zoning for conventional or mobile homes
- Good mix of vegetation including mature oaks, tangerines, orchids, and more

About & Experience

Charles marks the seventh generation of his family to live in Hernando County. From having grown up right here in Brooksville, he credits his first real estate interests stemming from the time spent with his father, Robert Buckner, hunting and picking oranges on the local land from a young age. Charles went on to earn his real estate degree from the University of Central Florida and his Master's in Real Estate from the University of Florida. He has since moved back to Brooksville and utilized much of what he learned to spearhead the brokerage's new look and features that are seen in use today. Charles is a devoted gym-goer and greatly enjoys the aquarium hobby.
