

When working with a real estate licensee in buying, selling, or leasing real estate, West Virginia Law requires that you be informed of whom the licensee is representing in the transaction. The licensee may represent the seller/lessor, the buyer/lessee, or both. The party represented by the licensee is known as the licensee's principal and as such, the licensee owes the principal the duty of utmost care, integrity, honesty, and loyalty.

- Diligent exercise of reasonable skill and care in the performance of the licensee's duties.
- A duty of honest and fair dealing and good faith.
- Must offer all property without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, age, blindness, or disability.
- Must promptly present all written offers to the owner.
- Provide a true, legible copy of every contract to each person signing the contract.
